Cocktail Hour

Music for cocktail hour (suggested genres are soft jazz, soft show tunes, or slow rock):

Party Start (Guests enter main party room from cocktail room)

Music to start with (soft music recommended if food on tables, high-energy dance music recommended otherwise):

Grace (or other blessings)

Blessing

Name of person (with phonetic pronunciation) to be introduced to say the blessing

Toast

Who will be introduced to offer the toast to the Guest of Honor? Write the name as the Guest of Honor would, and include phonetic pronunciation:

Will there be other people offering toasts? If so, describe:

After the toast, will the Guest of Honor want to say something? This is a wonderful opportunity to welcome everyone and to do any special acknowledgements, such as guests who have traveled a long distance or friends or family who have contributed in the preparation of the ceremony or reception. This is a fun and memorable alternative to the typical, time-consuming receiving line.

Meal

Type of music:

While guests are waiting for food, we can encourage other couples to come out on the floor and slow dance. Is this OK with you AND the caterer?

New Year's Eve Party Planner

Last Hour of Old Year and New Year's Eve Countdown

For the last hour of the old year, we recommend high energy music. Depending on the age group present, this could be current and recent high energy dance music, or it could be older high-energy rock and roll and disco. What type of music do you want for the last hour of the old year?

About 12 minutes before midnight, we suggest playing Instant Replay by Dan Hartman followed by Get Ready For This by Two Unlimited, and then playing 2001 Space Odyssey at 11:59pm for the final countdown. What songs do you want to play just before midnight?

Will there be a champagne toast at midnight?

Right after midnight, we typically play Auld Lang Syne and get everyone to sing along. That could be followed with God Bless America by Kate Smith (again getting everyone to sing along) and What a Wonderful World by Louis Armstrong. After that we suggest going upbeat for a while, perhaps starting with some swing like In the Mood by Glenn Miller. What songs/music do you want to play just after midnight?

Grand Finale/Last Dance

Before the last dance, we can organize guests into a circle around the guest of honor, pass the mic around, and allow them to each offer best wishes. Do you want to do this? To what song (we suggest That's What Friends Are For)?

Music for last dance (some suggestions follow):

- Last Dance (Donna Summer)
- Times Of Your Life (Paul Anka)
- I've Had the Time Of My Life (from Dirty Dancing)
- "You're the One That I Want (from Grease) followed by "Walking On Sunshine"
- Shout (Isley Brothers)
- New York, New York (Frank Sinatra)
- The Party's Over (Willie Nelson or Nat King Cole)
- Goodnight Sweetheart (The Spaniels)
- Day-O (Harry Belafonte)
